Do You Believe in Magic Collectors Club Member Special

As you read in the newsletter Stoope sure does love magic. He tries so hard but so often comes up a short. This time he didn't come up short, he came up with extra, Shadra's that is.

How would you like to share in his magic? You know we have always loved to tell a story. In this case we will let the figurines do it.

That would be Stoope the Stupendous wearing his gold threaded turban. Shadra when she first volunteered to assist him and the final result being three miniature Shadra's.

Stoope was very concerned about who was coming to see Spykes band. It appears Swingtime was coming to cover both events for the local scroll, The Krystonia Times.

To let you enjoy Stoope's performance first hand you can add this entire group to your collection for a special price of only $55.00. To take advantage of this great limited edition offer please fill out the information below and send to:
